Full Record of Convictions

Your record of criminal convictions will automatically be concealed if you meet the eligibility criteria stipulated in Section 7 of the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004.

You can, however, elect to receive a full record of your criminal convictions held on the computer systems administered by the Ministry of Justice by ticking this box. e.g. where it relates to a matter of foreign law/country (such as obtaining a visa or dealing with immigration etc.)

Please note that you should not tick this box if you are intending to give the report to a third party, such as employer or insurer. Requests for access by or for the purposes of third parties should be made on forms Priv/F2 or Priv/F3. Third parties should note it is an offence under Section 18 of the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004 for a third party to require or request that an individual give consent to disclosure of his or her full criminal record.
